If you lived in the Detroit area in the '60s and wanted to drag race, Woodward Avenue was the place to go. Filled with stories about everything that surrounded Woodward's action, including Detroit's legendary DJs who provided the cruisers' musical soundtrack, the hang-outs and drive-ins, the high-performance new car dealerships that provided the cars, and the legendary speed shops that provided the hot rod parts. If you are into muscle cars, great street-racing stories, or just want to remember or learn how it was back in the day, this is a great trip down Memory Lane. Soft cover, 160 pp.

THE DAWN OF PROSTOCK: NEW!

Drag Racing's Fastest Doorslammers 1970-1979

by Steve Reyes

Pro Stock is a unique class of racing, and one that has changed considerably over the years. The Dawn of Pro Stock is a celebration of the early years, when fans could really connect with the cars, and brand rivalries were intense. Legendary drag-racing photographer Reyes was trackside at the biggest and best NHRA events from the mid 1960s throughout the 1990s. He had a unique perspective on the development of Pro Stock, as he was able to document the evolution of both the cars and drivers as he observed them throughout the season. Steve has pulled together his own very best shots and supplemented them with some great images from his contemporaries to offer this new collection. Soft cover, 176 pp. Many B&W and color photos.

McLAREN FROM THE INSIDE NEW!

by Tyler Alexander

As an original member of the McLaren team, Alexander was able to document the effort that went into developing cars, as well as their performance at the track, from the mid-1960s through 2010. Many of his most striking images reveal the exhaustive testing and preparation that became a McLaren hallmark, as well as the friends and competitors and team leaders around McLaren through the years. Most of the photographs in McLaren From The Inside have never been published before, and the book's large format and strong design bring out the best in each of them.

HOT RODS AS THEY WERE

Another Blast From The Past

by Don Montgomery

Originally dual-purpose vehicles, hot rods furnished daily transportation and were also readily available for racing on the streets or at the dry lakes time trials. These cars peaked in the 1940s and disappeared in the '50s because rodders moved on to cars specially designed for drag, track or lakes racing or for show display. Filled with photos from rodders' early albums, including a chapter on track roadsters, this is the evolution of the hot rod.

Hard cover, 301 B&W photos, 160 pp.
