by David Hayhoe
The first edition of this book was groundbreaking: an entire book dedicated to F1 records and trivia; this new edition is fully updated, with stats and extended narrative; performance records of every driver, car constructor, and engine make to have taken part; a summary of regulation changes since 1950; a quick reference guide to every Grand Prix result and more. Includes a comprehensive photographic section depicting the changing scene of Formula 1 since its inception in 1950. An invaluable reference. Hard cover, 540 pp., 90 color/B&W photos.

BILLY FOSTER
The Victoria Flash …
by Bob Kehoe
A detailed biography of Victoria, BC, driver Billy Foster, who raced in the Pacific Northwest in the 1950s and ’60s, moving up to USAC Stock Cars and Champ Cars (for the Volstede team), and ultimately qualifying for the 1965 Indy 500. He lost his life in a practice lap at Riverside in January 1967. Beyond the story of Foster’s own career are the recollections and stories of those he raced for, with and against, on the West Coast and across the country, both in stock cars and open-wheelers. Soft cover, 384 pages, full of photos.

THE DEVIL’S DISCIPLES
Vol. 1 and Vol. 2
Early Drivers of The Rough Tracks
by Gerald Hodges
The “Devil’s Disciples” of the early “rough” tracks were men and a few women who aligned themselves with the dark side of life during the formative years of racing (1904–1930). Pouring heart, body, and soul into the new sport of automobile racing, most envisioned fame, wealth, and glory. Barney Oldfield, Eddie Rickenbacker, Wilbur Shaw, and a few others defied death and soared to great heights. Many never got the opportunity to live life to its fullest. These true stories focus on early drivers, racing environments and tracks before the automobile makers moved in. Soft cover, 250 pp., vintage photos.
