Reading for Racers

Holiday Catalog 2024–2025

NEW from Coastal 181!

PLAYING IN TRAFFIC My Journey from an Autism Diagnosis to the Indy 500 Flagstand by Aaron Likens

Diagnosed at age 20 with Asperger's syndrome, Aaron Likens finally had the answer to why his life had been so full of challenges. With his talents as a racer and flagger, he built a career that ultimately led to becoming chief starter of the Indy 500. Along the way he discovered a powerful gift for sharing his story, teaching and training thousands of students and professionals on keys to understanding and treating autism. Soft cover, 344 pp., 45 color photos.

S-1773: $24.95

Hot New Titles!

FENDERED FURY NEW! The Complete History of USAC Stock Car Racing by Bob Mays, Richie Murray, Pat Sullivan, Steve Zautke

From the birth of the club in 1956 through the 1984 season, and the decade of late model racing that followed. Stock car pioneers Mantz, Jerry Unser, and Lorenzen; open-wheel legends like Ruttman, Foyt, Jones, and Ward; and later heroes like Norm Nelson, Butch Hartman, Dean Roper, and Billy Moyer Jr. Detailed yearly summaries; race wins and season points; biographies; historic notes and sidebars; complete coverage of AAA and USAC Late Model series. Hard cover, 256 pp., nearly 300 photos with 32 pp. of color images.

A.J. FOYT NEW! Survivor, Champion, Legend by Art Garner

One of the greatest race car drivers in history—some would argue the best, A.J. Foyt has the statistics to back it up. A classic authorized biography at more than 620 pages, with 1,500 source notes, 100s of hours of interviews with family, friends, and many of his peers, and nearly 100 photos, some from Foyt family albums and never seen before.

S-1790: $39.95

RAY EVERNHAM NEW! Trophies and Scars by Ray Evernham with Joe Garner

Ray Evernham's deeply personal account of his extraordinary career, including his time as crew chief for NASCAR phenom Jeff Gordon. It's also a window into some of the painful challenges Evernham experienced on the track and off, and the rich rewards that overcoming those challenges brought.

S-1770: $34.95

TEXAS LEGEND NEW! Jim Hall and his Chaparrals by George Levy

One of the greatest drivers of his generation, Jim Hall is even better known as an innovator. From tiny Chaparral Cars in Midland, Texas, a series of vehicles emerged that changed the face of racing. Hall's high-winged Chaparral 2E Can-Am car and 2F World Sportscar may be the most influential race vehicles of the 20th century. Today, every Formula 1 car uses technology that Chaparral pioneered in the mid-1960s. An authorized biography packed with facts and anecdotes and lavishly illustrated with period photographs. Hard cover, 484 pp.

S-1783: $80.00

Popular This Year

STILL RACING!

by Ken Schrader
with Joyce Standridge

Ken Schrader is still winning races 52 years into his career. The NASCAR and short-track icon shares new tales of his exploits, taking readers along on and off the track. Soft cover, 276 pp., 275 color/B&W photos.

S-1745: $29.95

LAZZARO

The Man and his Machines
by Ron Moshier

S-1746: $29.95

ED PINK:

THE OLD MASTER

The remarkable life and times of racing's most versatile engine builder

by Ed Pink with Bones Bourcier

Ed Pink's engine-building prowess has powered drag-racing superstars, Indy car legends, sports car heroes and USAC champions. But Pink wanted his memoir to be more about people than engines. Success! Hard cover, 100s of color/B&W photos. Autographed.

S-1760: $39.95

THE PFROMMER OFFY

A History of An Iconic Sprint Car
by Alan F. Gross

Through a 15-year search to verify the provenance of the famous Pfrommer Offy, owner Alan Gross has documented every owner and driver from 1954 to the present, including Tommy Hinnershitz, who won the 1959 USAC Eastern Championship in the car. Soft cover, 156 pp., 200+ color/B&W photos/illustrations.

S-1761: $34.95

THE LAST COWBOY

The Life and Times of Billy Pauch

by Buffy Swanson,
foreword by Ray Evernham

Billy the Kid rarely lets down his guard. While he never really learned to sugar up to a potential sponsor, he sure could sweet-talk a race car, whether Modified or Sprint, on dirt or asphalt. This is how and why he did it, and who he really is. Soft cover, 278 pp., 253 photos.

S-1759: $44.95

Open Wheel & Indy Car Books

THE FIRST LADY OF DIRT NEW!

The Triumphs and Tragedy of Racing Pioneer Cheryl Glass
by Bill Poehler

Early in her career, Cheryl Glass looked certain to become the first Black woman to compete in the Indianapolis 500. From racing quarter-midgets at ten, to Indy Lights in her twenties, Cheryl was on her way towards a winning career. But while appearing to have it all—talent, ambition, looks—she faced many challenges on and off the track, including racist and sexist taunts from other drivers and fans, and her life spun out of control.

Hard cover, 240 pp.

DRAG RACING'S REBELS NEW!
How the AHRA Changed Quarter-Mile Competition
by Doug Boyce
foreword by Don Garlits

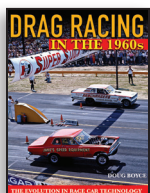

The fascinating story of the AHRA: its rise, competition, events, and eventual downfall. The AHRA was called a rebel association, one "that got things done." On equal ground with the NHRA by the 1970s, it drew enormous crowds and racer entries. But after AHRA President Jim Tice passed away in 1982, internal fighting doomed the association. Soft cover, 192 pp., 437 color/B&W photos. S-1762: $34.95

WE WERE THE RAMCHARGERS NEW!
Inside Drag Racing's Legendary Team, Second Edition

by Dave Rockwell

With over 200 new images, this edition takes readers behind the scenes with Chrysler engineers who, from the 1950s–1970s, became one of the most successful and influential drag racing teams of all time. The Ramchargers broke the most time barriers in drag racing history and earned the most NHRA Super Stock titles during the sport's golden era of factory competition. Former Ramcharger Rockwell takes readers behind the doors at Chrysler, while revealing the personalities of those who made it all happen. Hard cover, 396 pp. S-1780: $85.00

A tale of family, friends, and forging a path that no other Chinese-Hawaiian before him had carved. Relive his biggest wins and lasting friendships in this first-ever publication on drag racing's first builder and tuner superstar. Soft cover, 176 pp., 311 color/B&W photos. S-1757UC: $36.95

UNDENIABLY UNWANTED NEW! Grand Touring and GN East 1968–1973
by Greg Fielden

The lost history of the NASCAR Grand Touring and Grand American Circuit, staged from 1968–1973. It became the #2 Series of NASCAR and competed on tracks like Daytona, Charlotte, Darlington, and dozens more. But when Bill France Jr. took over NASCAR in 1972, he concentrated all his efforts on the Winston Cup trail and left the Grand American to fizzle away. Includes a section on the Grand National East (1972–1973). Complete box scores in both the G.A. and G.N.E. Soft cover, 204 pp., 200 color/B&W photos. S-1778: $37.95

ALL OF IT Daytona 500 Champion Tells the Rest of the Story NEW!
by Geoff Bodine
with Dominic Aragon

Bodine takes a close look at his life—roots in a racing family, career as a professional driver, his deep and guiding faith, and more. Racing in NASCAR Cup from 1979 to 2011, Bodine drove for legendary car owners, won the sport's biggest race, had a fierce rivalry with the late Dale Earnhardt, and survived one of the most brutal crashes in NASCAR history. Soft cover, 328 pp. S-1767: $24.95

SHORT TRACK SHOOT-OUTS NEW!
Grand National Short Track Circuit, 1951–1959
by Greg Fielden

In 1951, Big Bill France had too many requests from promoters wanting to stage the ultra-popular Grand Nationals. So he began another Grand National Series on tracks less than a half-mile. The Short Track Grand National Series was born. From 1951–1959, NASCAR sanctioned 216 short track races for Grand National Automobiles; to spice things up, he permitted sports cars and foreign cars to join the excitement: lots of passing, fender-rubbing, and electrifying finishes. Soft cover, 204 pp., heavily illustrated with photos and stats. S-1779: $34.95
